THANKSGIVING PSALM

A Rhythmic and Grateful Chant.

A teacher in a Terre Haute public school joins in the chorus: "Teaching is a business which requires a great deal of brain and nerve force. Unless this force is renewed as fast as expended the teacher is exhausted before the close of the year. Many resort to stimulating tonics for relief."

"For three years I struggled against this almost complete exhaustion, getting little relief from doctor's tonics. Then, in the spring of 1933, I had an attack of la grippe and malaria which left me too weak to continue my work. Medicine failed to give me any relief, a change of climate failed, I thought I should never be able to go back to school again."

"I ate enough food, (the ordinary meals, white bread and vegetables) but was hungry after meals."

"I happened at this time to read an article giving the experience with Grape-Nuts food. I decided to try Grape-Nuts and cream, and an experiment. It was a delightful experience, and continues so after a year and a half of constant use."

"First, I noticed that I was not hungry after meals."

"In a few days that tired feeling left me, and I felt fresh and bright, instead of dull and sleepy."

"In three months, more than my usual strength returned, and I had gained fifteen pounds in weight."

"I finished the year's work without any kind of tonic—was not absent from duty even half a day."

"Am still in the best of health, with all who know me wondering at the improvement."

"I tell them all, 'Try Grape-Nuts.' Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich."

There's a reason.

NEW SAVINGS BANK FULLY ORGANIZED

Intended Largely for the Convenience of Departmental Clerks.

The incorporators and stockholders of the Citizens Savings Bank have completed their permanent organization by the election of a president and board of directors.

As it is the intention of the new institution to devote special attention to the banking wants of the employees of the Government, it was but natural that an official link connected with the Treasury Department should be selected to head the organization, and James A. Sample, for many years chief of the division of issue, was elected.

The other officers selected were: R. W. Beall, first vice president; J. O. Johnson, second vice president; John Quinn, fourth vice president; and H. P. Huddleston, secretary. A treasurer and auditor will be chosen later on.

The board of directors consists of Government officials and well-known business men, and comprises J. Auerbach, C. S. Bundy, W. E. Abbott, John Quinn, M. O. Chaney, N. H. Clark, R. Aronson, A. Sample, J. O. Johnson, A. O. Grenshaw, W. E. Bennett, W. B. Brown, R. W. Beall, S. Bessie, and H. P. Huddleston.

The capital stock will be $100,000, with a par value of $10 per share, and it is the intention to distribute the stock widely, subscriptions will be limited to no more than 100 shares per person. A location has not yet been determined on, but the neighborhood of Fourteenth street and New York avenue is the one most desired.

WAR ON POOL ROOMS HOTTER THAN EVER

Jockey Club Fighting Telephone Information.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The war between the pool rooms and the race track associations waged hotter today when the pool room people began to lay plans for obtaining racing news and results, and the track officials took extra precautions to circumvent them.

Just how the pool rooms will get their news and get around the censorship at the race track, where all telegraph and telephone reports are held up half an hour, will not be divulged. The race track officials have hired an extra force of detectives to guard the entrances and exits to be guarded to prevent messengers from passing in and out with information. The pool rooms were practically out of business yesterday and today, with which the plan of the track officials were laid it is doubtful if they will be able to do business today.

Chances for Crooks.

The shutting off of all information until half an hour after a race makes it impossible for pool rooms to do business, as it leaves them open to dangers of "killings." The flash of a wrong winner by a messenger bought out by sharpers, or an inside leak of the winner, flashed immediately to the city on the tracks' own wires, would mean a loss of many thousands of dollars. This unexpected move of the race track discloses a compact made by the Jockey Club with the State Conference of Religion while the Lansing-Cassidy anti-betting bill was before the Legislature for passage.

The Rev. Thomas Slicer, together with several other ministers, comprising the legislative committee of the conference, suddenly came out in opposition to the Lansing-Cassidy bill. All that Dr. Slicer would say was that there "had been an understanding with the Jockey Club, but he would not hint at what the terms of the compact were. The terms of the contract were plainly apparent yesterday when the order came to cut off all information. It would have been a mistake to reveal the arrangement earlier.

The Lesser Evil.

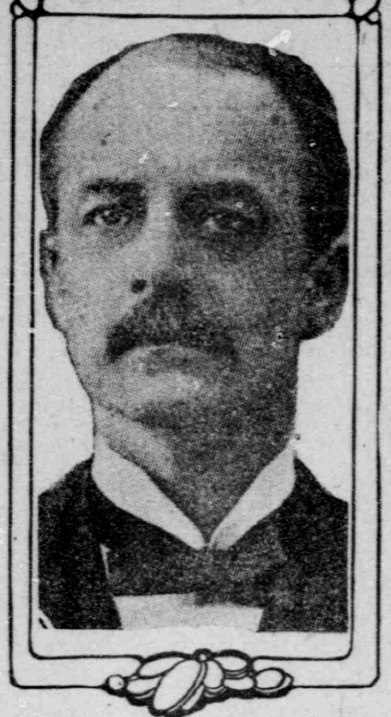

The public, in brief, thought gambling at racetracks a lesser evil than that in poolrooms, and they fitly influence with the racetrack so as to kill the poolrooms. Dr. Slicer, in speaking of the agreement, said:

"They are fulfilling their promise. It is for them and the police to see that it is continued."

"The Jockey Club intends to do everything possible to prevent poolroom gambling. The standard taken by the Jockey Club will be taken at the other tracks."

THREE ATTELS FIND BOXING PROFITABLE

Each of Famous Brothers Well-to-Do.
Caesar Owns Two Pawnshops.
Able Training Hard.

LOS ANGELES, April 17.—That clever little man, Abraham Attell, is about to cease active training for his bout with Frankie Neil. Today will be the last day of the boxing, for which Monte Attell and Kid Barry are more than thankful.

Able is near enough on edge to finish his work without more of the actual bludgeoning of the training. A boxer, second to no man in the world, he has nothing to learn and everything to lose should he sprain a thumb or put one of his hands out of business.

There are three of the fighting Attells, Caesar, Abraham and Monte. They are the Rockefeller of the ring. Caesar is the retired member. He quit the game with two pawnshops to the good and he can't see why he should push his noble more into any more active business. Business is very good for Caesar.

Able is the most prominent member of the syndicate. He is the feather-weight champion of the world. Such authority as Jack O'Brien, himself not the least clever of our American boxers, says that Able is the cleverest man in the world.

CARLISLE INDIANS— GEORGE WASHINGTON

Two Teams Will Play Tomorrow at Van Ness Park in First Annual Game.

The big Indian braves from Carlisle will be the opponents of the George Washington baseball team tomorrow afternoon at Van Ness Park. Hutchinson, who is head and shoulders above the other Buff and Blue boxmen, is slated to pitch against the Redskins. It is peculiar to notice the difference in the playing of the George Washington team when Hutchinson is in the box. The best games played by the Hatchettes have been those against Penn. State, Gallaudet, and Columbia, when "Hutch" was pitching.

Captain Bradley was much displeased with the work of the team yesterday against Syracuse, and he has threatened an upheaval unless better form is shown by the men.

The Indians are unusually strong this year, and the Hatchettes will have to work their hardest to hold the score down. Coach Weber said today that he believed the men were now due for a brace, and thinks his team will do well against the dusky lads from Carlisle.

This is the first time the Indians have played a baseball game in Washington, and they are immensely popular here in football. It is probable a big crowd will be out to see the game.
